

Pinewoods Scottish Sessions Packing List

- Flashlight (the paths can be very dark at night)
- Blankets and sheets (for single beds) or a sleeping bag; linens and towels can be rented from Camp for a nominal fee
- Extra pillow (if you need more than the one provided or are attached to your own!)
- Towels (plural): for swimming and beach activities, showers, and hand drying; they take a long time to dry in humid weather
- Swimsuit, sunscreen, sunglasses, sunhat
- Comfortable clothes for dancing during the day (lots of t-shirts, skirts or shorts; sundresses); ladies usually wear skirts or dresses for the evening parties; men wear shorts or kilts
- Ball gowns and kilts for the balls
- Shoes: all the ghillies and pumps you have, comfortable sturdy shoes for walking around camp, flip-flops for the beach and showers
- Costumes and accessories for the tea party in Session I and costume dance in Session II (optional but welcome)
- Warm clothing, such as jeans and a sweatshirt (the weather gets cool sometimes, especially at night)
- Rain gear (this helps keep the rain away!)
- Insect repellent
- Toiletries, Band-Aids
- Fans—both hand and electric, if the weather is going to be hot
- Alarm clock or other wake-up device (no roosters!)
- Medications you may need, especially a bee sting kit if you are allergic
- Special foods you may need (you may use the refrigerators in the Camp House, Pinecones, and Hunsdon House)
- Musical instruments
- Beer and other beverages to enjoy and share at the after-parties (punch is usually provided by the party hosts—both spiked and unspiked)
- Small carry-all or backpack for bringing your shoes and water bottles around camp

What not to bring:

- Pets
- Guests
- Valuables
- Firearms
- Illegal substances
- Heat-producing appliances such as hairdryers. Most of the housing at camp cannot handle the electrical requirements of hairdryers. If you must use them, when at camp ask the Grounds Crew where these appliances can be used safely.
